by adding the following as a new Section 1 and by redesignating the existing Section 1 and subsequent sections accordingly:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 7-86-105, is amended by deleting subdivision (b)(1) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

(b)

(1) Except as otherwise provided by law, an emergency communications district shall have a board of directors composed of not less than seven (7) nor more than nine (9) members to govern the affairs of the district. For districts created by a county legislative body, the county executive shall appoint the members of the board of directors subject to confirmation by the county legislative body. When the county executive names an appointment to the board, the county legislative body has ninety (90) days or until the conclusion of its next regularly scheduled meeting, whichever is later, to confirm or reject the appointment. If the legislative body does not act within this time period, the appointment shall take effect without confirmation. In any municipality having a population of less than thirty thousand (30,000) according to the 1980 federal census or any subsequent federal census, having adopted home rule pursuant to the Constitution of Tennessee, Article XI, Section 9, and having an incorporated area lying in two (2) counties, the board of directors may be the legislative body of such municipality if the emergency services are provided by such municipality.
